Discover more with access to social and web insights.

TruLookup Social Media Search, powered by TLOxp®, offers search and report functionality for access to (publicly-facing) social media and web data to support and enhance your investigations, research and due diligence. In a single search, you can now discover more about a subject's digital identity through information not readily accessible via other forms of public records data — helping you gather information and assess risk more effectively.

Links to social profiles on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, YouTube, Instagram and more.

Easily gain access to a world of insight – which can save you valuable time, money and energy.

SOME USE CASES INCLUDE:

Financial services and collections – Bolster debt recovery, support recovery of delinquent assets and investigate potential fraud.

Insurance – Special investigations support, claim verification, fraud and risk mitigation.

Law enforcement – Investigate behaviors of a subject based on their online (publicly-facing) posting activity; gather information to help support a case; better authenticate known locations; and discover new associates of subjects of interest.

Legal – Supplement verification and authentication of witness and expert testimony; gather information to challenge a claim; or discover key insights regarding the facts of a case.

Investigations – Conduct due diligence for criminal and civil investigations.

Retail – Investigate store theft and fraud; as an aid for discovery of improper trademark usage and/or counterfeit items.

The information you're looking for could be closer than you think. TruLookup Social Media Search can help you discover more today.
